

product applications

LCM type 1.3

scenario

This scenario shows an LCM being used to power all the luminaires in the room via extender cables, fixed 't' pieces attached to the luminaires and by drop leads. Switching is provided by the LCM to channels 1 via absence detection only. Channel 1 may be dimmed manually at the wall switch. Channel 2 operates the display light via a wall switch. All channels are turned off by the absence detection programme.